NEW YORK, April 2.—A terrible thunder and rainstorm broke over American League Park on Washington Heights this afternoon and spoiled what promised to be an interesting base-ball game, the initial one of the season, between the washington and New York teams. Nearly 20,000 persons were present. The people in the open stands jumped down upon the field and a riot seemed immient, but the police, under Captain Halpin, kept the crowd well in check as they passed toward the box office clambring for rain checks. The supply of these was very limited and it was announced that there would be no admission charged for the game which will be played between the same clubs next Monday. The score slood 3 to 1 in favor of Washington in the fourth inning.

'TWAS A GREAT EXHIBITION

Local Cranks Have Rarely Seen a More Snappy and Satisfactory Game.

The Richmond College base ball team surprised even their warmest admirers by their showing in the game played at New Haven men winning by a score of 3 to 0 in a prettily played game. The local legians played a sharp game and held the sons of Eli down to a surprisingly small score, and not one of the three steady in the box for the collegians, hav balls and let the visitors down with a rather doubtful.

ing on their southern practice trip, but they played a very good game in the Story of the Game.

Story of the Game.

O'Brien went out to pitcher to first;
Kenney reached first on a hit that Richardson could just touch, and Cote was safe on Richardson's fumble. Bowman struck out and Smith was thrown out, Harwood to Sutherland, ending Yalen first turn with the hat. For Richmond Harwood was safe on Church's error, but was thrown out, Pratt to O'Brien, on Snead's rap toward short. Robertson sent a fly to O'Brien and Griffin gave Smith his only put-out. Score, nothing to nothing.

Second inning—Barnes out, Griffin to Sutherland; Church falled to land on the ball and retired; Erwin was safe on Taiman's failure to handle his hard drive. Pratt ended the inning with a fly to Sutherland. For the College, Mench was safe on Church's second error, but was retired a moment later on Duna-way's rap to Pratt. Sutherland sent what looked like a good one into short field, but O'Brien pinched it and threw the runner out at first, retiring the side.

A Double Goose Egg.

Neither could score in the sixth. Smith went out, Talman to Sutherland; Barnes was safe on Richardson's error; but Church went out on a fly to Mench, and Erwin ended the inning by popping up one to Griffin. Hardwood made an auspicious opening for Richmond with a clean single to right, but Snead fanned, Harwood was thrown out, Erwin to O'Brien, trying to Barnes.

thrown out, Erwin to O'Brien, trying to plifer second, and Robertson sent a fly to Barnes.

Pratt opened the seventh by fanning. O'Brien was thrown out at first by Talman. With two down, Kinney hammered one to the foul line in right field and was resting on third when Dunaway returned the ball to the pitcher. Talman juggled Cote's drive and Kinney trotted in. Bowman ended the inning by sending one to Richardson, which he forwarded to Sutherland. One more run for the Blue, a total of three. Griffin started Richmond's inning with a fly to Bowman, which the gridlron glant gobbled. Mench fouled out to Erwin, but Dunaway was safe on a poor throw to first by Bowman. Sutherland struck out, and hope deferred was the net result.

In the eighth Smith was safe on Harwood's error, and Barnes sacrificed him to second. He reached third on a passed ball, but was thrown out at the plate on Church's drive to Talman, which was brilliantly fielded. Erwin ended the fruitiess inning by going out, Richardson to sutherland. Talman opened up for Richmond with his second safety to center, but Richardson was thrown out at first on a muffed third strike. Talman stole second, but Harwood could only send a fly to the unerring and voracious O'Brien, and Snead's drive to Kinney ended the inning, the runner going down at first Tius ended Richmond's best chance to score.

Thus ended Richmond's best chance to score.

Pratt began the ninth with a wind-jamming exposition; O'Brien received the distinction of being the only man Griffin allowed to walk to first, and showed his appreciation by stealing second while Griffin in was thinking or dresming. The pitcher it moment later threw him out at second, Talman covering the bag. Kinney's drive to Harwood, was well fielded to first and ended Yale's scoring. For the collegians Robertson went out, Kinney to Bowman; Griffin sent a sharp drive to left for a safety, and might have taken second and had he been faster. Monch drove one to the ubiquitous O'Brien, who nailed Griffin at second and threw Monch out at first, closing the game with the only at TERMS.
